During Paryushan there will be uchavni everyday for Aarti and Mangal Divo.

Katasna: There will be no nakro for this, however there will be a donation box so please donate generously.

The Nakro for Samuh Aarti is £10.25 and for Sapna is £15.25 for anyone wishing to take labh of Samuh Aarti and Sapna. Please forward your name with the payment at the desk during Paryushan or earlier.

If anyone wishes to provide Prabhavna please forward your name in advance rather than on the day.

During this auspicious festival, the Religious Committee would welcome donations towards hall hire:
Paryushan: £101/day
Swamivatsalya Bhojan Hall Hire: £600.00

During the Paryushan week, Kushi Bhatt for Savantsari bhojan are welcome.

During this festival, the Religious Committee has decided that a list of sutras will be prepared in advance for each day and those wishing to lead the sutras need to forward their names to Ellaben or Bindiben before the festival. This helps with organising the recitals in advance.

This is a polite request that all bhaktos who have had the labh of having the Aarti, Mangal Divo, Samuh Arti, Sapna Parnu please make the payment on the day or by 10th September.

We rely on community member volunteers to assist us throughout the Paryushan Festival. Your continued support is requested, so please contact any committee member listed below or provide your details at the desk during Paryushan.

In the event of unforeseen circumstances, Luton Area Committee reserves the right to alter the above programme.

Ellaben tel: 01582 402080; Bindiben: 01582 431010; Sitalben: 01582 883629;
