10 Sep Sat Day 02: Steam train – Bourton-on-the-Water – Burford – Bibury (290kms)

Today spent the entire day at Cotswold visiting various villages. Start the journey by boarding the Gloucestershire Warwickshire Steam Railway and take a scenic train journey to Broadway, which remains today as it has for centuries with the picturesque rolling hills overlooking the ancient honey-coloured period buildings. We later visit the most beautiful town; Bourton-on-the-Water, known for its low bridges and traditional stone houses. You have free time to explore the town and you may like to visit the Model Village (entrance not included) or walk over the 5 bridges along town. Thereafter, we visit the town of Burford to take amazing pictures of the Honey coloured stones and see the England's oldest pharmacy. We finally visit the most postcard picturesque street in Cotswold, 'Arlington Row' in the town of Bibury before having dinner and overnight stay.

11 Sep Sun Day 03: Sudeley Castle - Stratford-Upon-Avon (240kms)

This morning start the day visiting Sudeley Castle, which sits nestled in the Cotswold Hills. The only private owned home in England to have a Queen (Katherine Parr, Henry VIII's sixth and last wife) buried within the grounds. Later continue to Stratford-upon-Avon, a pretty riverside town, most famous as the birthplace of Shakespeare. You may choose to immerse yourself in the bard's world and visit his birthplace, Anne Hathaway's Cottage (entrance not included), or his final resting place
