KALYANAKS

The Panch Kalyanaks of Tirthankaras are important and celebrated as they are the ones who have achieved liberation and are our guides on the path to liberation. The Tirthankaras are our role models and inspiration to better ourselves. The way we apply Jain values in our daily lives change over time, but the lessons taught by our Tirthankaras remain timeless and relevant – maybe now more than ever. These lessons of compassion, forgiveness, eco-friendly, to reduce Kashayas, treat everyone same etc are what we should remember and reflect upon when celebrating Tirthankaras Kalyanaks and try and incorporate them in our lives to further our own spiritual journey in this lifetime.

The quality of 'Vinaya' is the root of Dharma, and disregard for Kalyanaks shows one's lack of Vinaya towards the Tirthankaras, who promulgate this Dharma. In 'Yatra Vidhi Panchashak', Pujya Acharya Shri Haribhadrasuri states spiritual practices performed on Kalyanaks days yield multiplied gains.
