Pilgrimage in Jainism is known as Tirtha Yatra and the sacred places of pilgrimage are known as 'tirthas or tirthakshetras. Late LM Singhvi wrote that a tirtha is a "source of spiritual and ethical inspiration, instruction and edification; it is meant to be a bridge for the aspirant to facilitate his 'crossing over' of the river of his worldly existence" – i.e the elimination of the birth – death – birth cycle called samsara.
